Designer's Eye Q+A $57

This micro-service is like shooting a text to your designer BFF to get her opinion on something. It's simple and straightforward since it's all corresponded through email. After paying your invoice, you can send me an email with any photos of your space, inspiration photos, concerns, etc and I will take approximately 20 minutes to think through your inquiry and form an email response back with professional advice and insight. This is perfect for confirming an idea you have, getting a little jump start on a space or asking a specific question that doesn't warrant a full Direction Session.

What can you expect when you book a Designer's Eye Q+A?

+ Twenty (20) minutes worth of advice, insight and answered questions specific to your space

+ All images, questions and responses delivered through email

Direction Session

$147

This is currently the most popular option, where I come into your space (or discuss virtually via FaceTime) and we talk both big picture and specific details. We can sketch and/or take notes in that time allotment and give you steps to take forward on your own. This service is perfect for the home owner who is looking for an inspiring brainstorming session to get them started on a specific space.

What can you expect when you book a Direction Session?

- + Up to seventy five (75) minute in-home or digital consultation for up to two rooms
- + Professional advice based on needs and style preferences
- + All ideas and direction delivered within the time allotment

Design Delivery

Starting at $797

This package is a fast-track version of a typical large-scale interior design process. This is an amazing service because it gives you plenty of tangible steps and takes out a ton of guess work, leaving you with more time and potentially saving you money in the long run because you are buying the right items. I'm also able to offer the products I specify at a 10% discount through a rebate.

Pricing is $797 for one room or $1,197 for two rooms booked at one time.

What can you expect when you book a Design Delivery?

+ In-person (or virtual) consultation for one main space to discuss style and functional needs, take measurements, etc.

+ PDF format delivered at a later date with a comprehensive digital design presentation, furniture plan, shopping list of clickable online retail links and instructions for how to incorporate each item. When applicable, I will include options for small renovations and cosmetic changes.

+ Nearly all products are sourced through SideDoor, a platform specifically for interior designers and their clients. You will be given the link to an online portal containing all of your options that you can "Add to Cart." SideDoor carries products from 170+ trade vendors. In the case that no options from SideDoor work best in your space, I will source from a standard retail vendor.

+ 10% rebate sent back to you for any SideDoor products purchased. This means depending how many items you buy, this service will potentially pay for itself!

(Note SideDoor's return policy of accepting damaged items or anything not as advertised but no "I changed my mind" returns. Luckily, a professional has measured on your behalf.)

Custom Hourly Work $120/Hour

Memphis-based clients can hire me at my hourly rate for hands-on help with their interior design and decorating. We can work together on the front end to set up expectations for each other as well as budget and project timeline.

Pricing is $120/Hour. Minimum of 5 hours, booked in 5 hour increments.

What can you expect when you book Custom Hourly Work?

This service looks a bit different for everyone, as this is where the “custom” aspect comes in! Let’s chat if you have specific needs in mind.
